Newest state senator sworn in, receives committee appointments

SPRINGFIELD—The 53rd sworn in last week, has received her districts's newest state senator, committee appointments.

Judy Myers takes the oath of office from Judge Rita Garman at the Vermilion County Courthouse as family and friends look on. Myers was chosen Feb. 27 to replace the late Sen. Harry "Babe" Woodyard.

Judy Myers will serve on the Senate Agriculture and Conservation Committee and the Local Government and Elections Committee.

Myers was named to the committees Wednesday by State Senate President James "Pate" Philip.

Myers was sworn in as state senator on March 4. She will fill the seat of the late Sen. Harry "Babe" Woodyard, who died Jan. 31.

Judge Rita Garman conducted the swearing-in ceremony.

Myers, 57, served as Vermilion County Recorder since 1980.

Locations for her district offices have not been set, but Myers said she is committed to maintaining accessibility throughout the district.

The senator can be reached at Room M106, State House, Springfield, IL 62706. Her Springfield office phone number is (217) 782-
